JAMES J. SHANNON, Editor,

Official Journal of the City and State Official Journal for the Publication of the Laws of the United States.

JACKSON, MISS.

Wednesday : : : : : August 29, 1866

The Verona Times confidently preact by the next Legislature. It says in number. the expense of the institution in Itabeen $1677,40.

"ELMSVILLE AND ITS HOSPITAL." We copy this morning from "The Land We Love," the first chapter of a very interesting story of Confederate times. It will be concluded in three or four numbers of our daily branch office of the National Express Company has been opened in this city. with Mr. W. H. Kells-a courteous and clever gentleman-as local agent. The office for the present will be at the store on State street formerly occupied by Randall & Putnam, and next door to S. Lemly & Son.

Agencies of this popular Company are being established very generally throughout the South. Old Joe Johnston is running the machine very suc cessfelly. Gen. T. L. Rosser is the Superintendent of this Division; Col. Phil. Stockton, Assistant Superintendent.

RECONSTRUCTED POSTOFFICES IN MISSIS SIFI.-The following is a complete list to the 20th inst: Friar's Point, Hazelhurst, Magnolia. Crystal Spring Centerville Concordia Liberty. Koscinsko. Hopewell Carrollton. Jefferson Winona, Houston. Greenshore

Oakl'd Springs Grand Gulf. Port Gibso Linden. Hernando Williamsburg, Gainsville Fulton. Church Hill, Union Church. Rodney Madison Stat'n Brookhaven. Columbia ernon N Mt Pleasant. Gholson, Decatur, Osyka, Hillsboro. Old Hickory Egg Point. Lake Wishgton Yazoo City Pass Christian Miss ippi City, Handsboro. West Point Bay St. Louis, Shieldsboro. Aberdeen. Artesia. Brookville Lauderdale Americus Quitman. CrawfordsvilleCorinth. Columbus Cooksville, Ghobson Enterprise. Grenad: Jackson. Holly Springs. Louisvill Marion Station Macon. Marhew: Meridian, Marion. Okalona, Scooba. Shubuta. Cascagonla. Buckatunna. Tibbee, Egypt, Tupelo. Vicksburg.

The Case of Wm. B. Nelson--- Letter from Governor Humphreys to the Ladies of Vazoo City and County.

Verona.

ON BOARD STEAMER "CALEMET," August 13, 1866. To the Ludies of Yazoo City and County:

I received your petition with three public instruction. hundred and fifty-five signatures, in years in the Penitentiary.

On the 15th of July, the Rev. M. H. (Nelson's) execution-hoping and belasting.

ment in the Penitentiary.

After considering the case, I yielded to these importunate appeals, so eight days, that the unfortunate pris- gentlemen. oner might make his peace with his God, and be prepared to meet his awful doom. I had some fears that this act of mercy to the prisoner might work some injustice to others, but I have underrated the gallantry of the brave soldiers and patriotic men of Yazoo, if they do not willingly guard and safely keep the prisoner for twenty-eight days, at the request of those Confederacy, through the long and as follows: dreary years of their heroic struggle for Southern Rights, when made, too, in behalf of a brave Confederate sol- A. N. V. dier; but now unhappy, convicted and repenting criminal. In this, time may prove that I have erred; the records | do. temper justice with mercy.

an impartial investigation, all admit awfully bedaubed with mud.

sentence of the Court. It is with unfeigned pain, a fixed fish and game, and occasional roastconviction of executive duty con- ing ears during all last summer, and strains me to deny to my noble countrywomen a compliance with their touching appeal, and forbids the further interposition of executive clem-

With sentiments of profound respect and affection, covered in Texas.

I am Your devoted Friend and Ob't Servant, BENJ. G. HUMPHREYS.

Governor of Mississippi. A vein of petroleum oil has been dis

The Teachers' Convention. OFFICE OF THE SUMMERVILLE INSTITUTE, ?

GHOLSON, MISS., Aug. 24, 1866. Editor of Clarion: The movement tions accorded to the main body. Col. for a Teachers' Convention now on foot is one of the most important that has transpired throughout the history teachers who, at this early day, predict a failure, etc. Let me tell you. and through you let me assure the Teachers' movement who will not perhear with the profoundest respect, the southern train for their homes. public, that there are men in this DECISIONS OF THE HIGH COURT mit the Convention to pass, and with it the effects of its action. There are men in the preliminary movements that the Governor and Legislature will dicts the repeal of the county court though they may be not half a score

There is a new era in our social exwamba county since January last has istence, in our political history; and shall our educational affairs not be elevated to meet the fearful responsibilities of the times? No man lives a life worthy of his form and features who lives for himself alone. He must estate of Littleton Munday, deceased, praylive for posterity. Cicero declares, in his most finished oration, that " we the petition as due to petitioners. should not make a name for the present time, but that we should equal the re-NATIONAL EXPRESS COMPANY .- A membrance of our good deeds to the There was also a plea filed by the Executrix luration of all futurity." This same and Executors which was adjudged insuffimatchless orator and philosopher, who hoped, even in the absence of Revelation, to exist after death in an elevation bathed in eternal light and happiness, expressed the opinion that a desire to live, beloved in the memory without further proceedings or proof and of posterity, was the only incentive to without an account, a final decree was renvirtuous deeds. Let us come fully up dered against the said Geo. W. Sellers, Luto the duties of the hour.

cinda Munday, and William H. Baldwin, for the sum of $11,190 21-000. The Philadelphia Convention was one of questionable political policy; judgment. The 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th assignthe proposed Teachers' Convention ments of error, relate to the action of the court upon the sufficiency of the pleading ooks to the gradual elevation of man-

No teacher can fail to see that our whole educational labor in this State ford, et al. 35th Miss. R. P. 321, 356, which is a mere guerilla warfare against ignorance. We need a systematic warfare. If the forty or fifty thousand ceeding by which the administrator's ac dollars now annually expended upon | countability is to be ascertained, to be con the new County Court were placed to the credit of a permanent school fund for which the administrator should account, The morbid thirst of fever cannot be an account, upon the same principles upon removed by drinking cool water, nor can the prevalence of petty larceny be with which the administrator is chargeable, his eye rested. abated by the infliction of stripes or and no formality of pleading is necessary in imprisonment. In both cases the taking such an account. cause must be removed. We must And in French vs. Davis, 3 to distribution cause must be removed. which shall cover the whole State, technical rules; and it is competent for The moral and intellectual sentiment either party to introduce such evidence in of our State must be raised above the proceedings of this character as may be neatmosphere of gross sensuality. Our dered, without regular and formal pleadings: His sad mu people must be taught the duty and lignity of labor. All this cannot be court erred in rendering final judgment done in a day or in a year, but it can be against defendants below without squiring parlor The teachers are the men to inaugur- given. ate the movement - It is common to | In the case before us, a refunding bond is hear my brethren complaining that their social status and influence is far below their merits; that a young gentleman cannot negotiate a congenial marriage unless he abandons teaching and go into one of the learned (!) professions, or embark in mer- law, and if made before final settlement, it cantile or agricultural pursuits. While | cannot be enforced until a refunding bond is there is much truth in the complaint, executed.

let it be asked when did the teachers error, relate to the insufficiency of the serof Mississippi make an effort to re- vice of process. The Statute requires that move the cause of their injustice? This "the distribution of personal estate, shall be distinguished by a generous system of subject to the same regulations as real estate complaint does not exist in counties Let every teacher in Mississippi behalf of Wm. B. Nelson, praying me now come forward to the good work "to exercise the prerogative with of thorough emancipation of themwhich the law has invested me," either selves and society. Let each one made;" and art 32, p. 461, makes provisions in the pardon of the prisoner afore show the interest in this matter mani- for cases of minors, who have no guardian, said, or in his pardon on condition of fested by gentlemen of the press, not or when the guardian is personally interbeing confined for life or a term of alone by the press of Jackson, as is charged, but by every paper through- can be made for distribution, unless these out the State. Let me instance the parties in interest, are properly summoned Phillips, of Yazoo City, addressed me zeal of Col. A. G. Horn of the "Mo

In the case before us, with the exceptions of the Executrix and ed in Court, but few, if any, of the parties letter, requesting me to delay his ridian Messenger." He has, without invitation, republished all that has made Defendants, (and four of whom are lieving that he may be better prepared been written in favor of this Conven- minors,) were duly summoned, as appears for treading the dark valley that sepa- tion. The Colonel's head has grown rates this life from that which is ever | frosty in the public service, and that | too with no adequate reward. In A delegation of ladies from Yazoo every liberal work that could redound City and county, waited on me at Jack to the benefit of society, for the last son, on the 18th of July, with a peti- twenty years, we see traces of Colotion from over one hundred and fifty nel Horn's brilliant pen. Now in the trix and Executors, to be distributed. ladies, of the highest social position matter of a Teacher's Convention, we in Mississippi, praying for the com- observe him zealously at work, with a 35th Miss., p. 354, this subject is fully discussed, and the rules to be observed mutation of the sentence to imprison- clear apprehension of the vast responsibility of existence, and with a heart tribution, are clearly defined.

unselfish as the sunshine. Hoping to see a good gathering of far as to grant a reprieve for twenty- Teachers on the 3d proximo, I am,

Your obedient servant, THOS. S. GATHRIGHT. From the Petersburg Index, 18th. The Last of Lee's Army.

FOUR MORE SURRENDER

The serenity of the office of the

ommanding officer of the post was noble ladies who have so faithfully agitated on yesterday, by the apparikept watch and ward over the homes | tion of four Confederate soldiers, who and happiness of the soldiers of the gave their names and 'descriptive lists'

Anthony Monkas, co. E, fifty-second Georgia infantry, 3d army corps, held insufficient. Because this plea relates

Thos. Wells, ditto. Allan Tewksberry, 43d Louisiana,

of eternity may show that it is well to | A more ragged set of mortals had never appeared before the colonel dur-The power to pardon and reprieve ing all the dealings he has ever had was entrusted to the executive for the with the "ragged rebels" of Lee's army. ends of both mercy and justice, but Tewksberry was a sort of walking ilshould not be exercised when mercy | lustration of original patchwork. His would work a wrong to public just clothing had been tied, and sewed and ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.-The general stuck together with strings, and thread news agent of the Herald stationed in When the angel virtues of a woman and thorns, until there did not appear London sent on Thursday, the 16th, will be found pleading on mercy's side, a solitary square inch upon it which the following telegram, which was the sterner claims of justice are de had not been tied up, sewed up, or received on the evening of the same manded at the hands of the sterner sex. stuck up, in some way or other. His day:-This unhappy man has passed companions were not quite as badly To Bennett, Herald:through all the forms of trial ordained off, one having a pair of blue yankee No more telegrams-without funds-they and established by human wisdom for pantaloons with only a half a dozen his and society's protection. No one | rents in it; another hiding the ragged- | to eight. now pleads his innocence. Unlike ness of his gray pants with a flowing,

As soon as business could be transthe true Confederate soldier, who though ribbony, yankee overcoat, and acted at the bank the next morning fought the battles of the South on the the other making his decency apparent (yesterday,) we deposited ten thousfront line, he has eschewed the path by concealing the defects of his upper and dollars in gold for our general of peace and honest industry. After garments with an old oil cloth fly, news agent in London, and then telegraphed simply :- "Cash deposit in that his course since the surrender has Tewksberry stated to the colonel Duncan, Sherman & Co,'s bank of ten been marked by idleness, disorder and that he and his party stopped on the thousand dollars in gold." This he crime, until arrested in his wicked Appomattox, about seven miles above probably received vesterday. Thus career by the officer of the law. A the city, after the evacuation of Peters- the whole business transaction was acsworn jury of his countrymen have burg, for the purpose, at first, of complished in little more than twentydeclared him guilty of the highest resting; that they staid longer than four hours. We begin to experience crime, and an enlightened court has they expected, and were cut off. They some of the extraordinary effects of olation attend his ruthless army at evpronounced the highest penalty known then made a vow to live on that spot, the Atlantic cable, but we have not yet ery step. The once lovely town of to the law. A reprieve for twenty- and never go home or give up until imagined what these will be. All imeight days has been granted as a con- the Confederacy was completely an- portant business between the two concession to the claims of mercy, and nihilated. They sought out a cave on | tinents will be transacted by telegrams. the hopes of the Christian-but the the banks of the river, which at that and the system of exchange between inexorable claim of public justice—the point is very rocky, and after some America and Europe will be broke up. peace, order and security of society little industry succeeded in erecting A new era in commercial and financial Captain Barton was scarcely aware now demand the execution of the for themselves a most comfortable business has commenced.-New York that he was so near to his place of little home. Here they lived upon Herald. upon bread made of corn they had very general complaint are already too well gathered from the corn fields, and an known to require any description. Accordoccasional pig they found without a ing to the science of medical men, headache ly, said : mother in their rambles during the arises either from a sympathy with the winter. This spring and summer they stomach and chylopoetic viscera, or from a but Major: and I have the sad task, lived as they did last summer; but weakness or exhaustion of the power of the recently, hearing from an old negro encephalon. The one may be called symmains home. When the train leaves recently, hearing from an old negro pathelic and the other nervous headache. All that is necessary in the treatment is to restore a healthy action to the stomach. It man that the Confederacy had undoubtedly "gone up," they concluded to

From The Land We Love. ELMSVILLE AND ITS HOSPITALS.

CHAPTER FIRST.

were the remnant of the army of Northern Virginia, and that they wished to surrender upon the condi-

Milton cordially assented to their re-

ERRORS ND APPEALS.

AT THE APRIL TERM, 1866.

Reported Expressly for the Clarion.

County.

DELIVERED THE OPINION OF THE COURT.

The defendants in error filed their petition

in the Probate Court against the appellants

Executors was rendered; and thereupon

This appeal is prosecuted to revise this

In the case of Crowder, et al vs. Shackle was a proceeding for distribution under the ducted according to the strict rules of pleading. In case of controversy as to the amount which a final account is taken: the object in both cases being to ascertain the true amount

The 5th assignment of error is that the a refunding bond with security, and without required by the decree, not specifying that security should be given, or the name of cited, it is held that a decree of this character, is not erroneous, for not requiring a refunding bond. The effect of such a decree, is to order distribution according to 117, on same page, in relation to "real

Under these provisions, no valid decree

by the returns of the sheriff, on the different citations issued. The decree was, therefore,

This was certainly erroneous. It was made without an account, and without proof of any sort, so far as the record shows, ascertaining the estate in the hand of the Execu-

In the case of Crowder vs. Shackleford under this Statute, in proceedings for dis-

An account should have been taken, and the amount and character, and condition of the estate in their hands, and the distributive share of each of the parties interested, ascertained; and if, upon full investigation,

with all the parties before it, the Court should be of opinion, that the same would be just and proper, and for the best interests

tor or Administrator, to make distributions

according to law. In the case of Crowder vs.

Shack!eford it is said that their "terms grant |

a rule to make distribution," imply that fhe funds, subject to distribution, as well as the portions of the persons entitled thereto have

It was therefore error to grant this decree without such previous accounts and ascertainment of the amount, character and condition of the estate, as well as the por-

It will be unnecessary to notice the last to the negro children, the increase of the woman; specifically devised "with their in by the decree, so far as we are enabled to see from the record, the action of the court in reference to this plea did not prejudice ap-

Let the decree be reversed and the cause

EXTRAORDINARY EFFECTS OF THE

As this property was not affected been previously ascertained and fixed.

tions of the persons entitled.

to this opinion

The 10th assignment relates to the decree.

void on this ground.

any securities.

or in the record.

Lucinda Munday, Ex. &c., et al)

William Calvit and wife.

"Yes mother, to-night is my last at I am at vonr service." quest, gave them transportation to their homes, and bade them adieu. home." Thus spoke Frank Barton, in Turning his horse up the Main The illustrious four roamed about reply to a question asked by his street, Frank passed on with his friend, of the State. There are not wanting town for a short time, had new suits of mother. "To-morrow I leave for my until he came to a large female colclothing given them, and, after being regiment. I received a letter from lege, in which his brother was a promade about half drunk, embarked on Phil Bradford yesterday; and in it he fessor. mentions that Major Cross has been "Come in, Phil," said he, "and see disabled by the accidental discharged of Johnnie and his wife. They will be a gun in the hands of one of the sol- glad to see you. diers. Poor Cross! I am sorry for "Thank you, Frank. But I have him. He is a gallant soldier and a only time to return to the depot be-

"But, my son, why go to-morrow? Parting here our friends went differ-Lil is at -; and John will surely ent ways; Frank paying his visit, and be provoked if you do not see him be returing alone to the dear old home, fore you leave for Virginia."

"Well, mother, I would certainly kept like to see Johnnie; and 1 must see Li-bless her! She would never for caus ight of the glad face in the give me if I went away without seeing door , so ready with its welcome, Appeal from the Probate Court of Franklin Li-bless her! She would never for caus HON. W. L. HARRIS, ASSOCIATE JUDGE, morrow. What has Phil Bradford Doctor Lee to give Johnnie a holiday. witten you that has so suddenly re- because I expected to leave home on called you to your command?"

and others, legatees and distributees of the as three men; but to settle difficulties, newly fledged Major Barton," bowing ing distribution and payment to petitioners and quiet your mind, here's Phil's let- low to her in mock deference. ter. You can read it, and if you see "What am I to understand, sir? days after notice and demand thereof by the me of the Executors, which was rejected by why I should remain at home, after Are you trying to tease me, or what collector, there shall be levied, in addition reading it, why, of course, I'll do so: does possess you? Will you ever. the court because it was not sworn to .and, while you are engaged in finding learn to be as dignified as your broth cient; and the said Executrix and Executors out the 'fine points,' I will call Jack er?' were required to answer further. The same and tell him to saddle Telegraph, for "O most august lady! I am as sejudgment pronouncing the answer insuffi- I must go and see Johnnie and that rious as-as-well, as anything you cient, recites that defendants having failed little wife of his." te answer said petition, upon motion, a de-cree pro confesso, against the Executrix and mentioned, the answer and the plea appear of color t'ought I vere you whistle, sah."

statute, the court has said, "that the statute does not contemplate or require the pro-Frank then walked slowly back toward the house, whence he had sauntered while issuing his orders to Jack;

and as he reached the steps, he sat the greatest results would be achieved. it would be the duty of the court to require down and looked thoughtfully around By Saving and Using Year Waste Crease, him, noting with a half-sad tenderness the many familiar objects upon which "To morrow," said he to himself.

· I return to my regiment Shall I ever return home? Shall I ever see have a system of common schools, of estates are informal, and not regulated by again this spot, so loved, so dear? Will my eyes eyer again see that darling mother gentle, loving sister, and His sad musings were interrupted by his mother's voice, calling from the "Frank, are you busy? If not, come done; and now is the time to begin. naming or specifying the security to be here for a moment, before you leave. I want you to tell me what to put away in your trunk. I know you will not come back before nightfall. Johnnie and Annie will keep you until then."

In the case of French vs. Davis, already Mother dear, do as you like about the matter. You are better acquainted with my wants than I am." As his mother, thus commissioned with full powers, turned away instinctively to commune with herself in regard to Frank's needs, his expeditious The 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th assignments of master of the horse" appeared, with eport of proceedings on his lips "Telegraph ready, Mass Frank! ordered and made in the same manner and got um roun' to de piazza."

you ere the gentle queen of night beestate"-requires that "the devisces or heirs gins her silvery reign. So get everyof the guardians of such as are under age, thing ready for me, and good by &c., offers superior inducements. residing to this State, shall be first summoned, before any decree and distribution is again

Kissing his mother, he disappeared through the door; and in a few moments was speeding down the avenue on the spirited horse, which had taken its eccentric name from its reputation for swiftness, a quality well exercised whenever Frank was the rider.

Let me tell you briefly, reader, who Frank Barton was. He was a descendant of one of the oldest families in Floyd county, the youngest son of Colonel Barton, a gentleman of distinction as a statesman and soldier. B. F. Jones, at Carrollton, or Col. J. L. Power, Young, handsome, wealthy, he added at this office to these adventitious qualities the charm of a genial manner and an irresistible frankness in eye, tone, and gesture. Better and rarer than these, were those ingredients of worth and to so high a standard in the estimation | the attention of Planters to this Tie, before of all who knew him-his generous or retail. instincts, his honorable principles, his unswerving adherence to any purpose once resolved upon, and last of all, his unselfishness. Warmly attached to friends as well as kindred, devoted | Manico & Co., New Orleans of all concerned, then it is made the duty of to our righteous cause, and conspicuthe Court "to grant a rule upon the Execu- ously brave in the hour of danger, he was a noble specimen of manhood. possessing all the requisites of a true gentleman. He was, at the breaking out of the war, a recent graduate of Emory College, where he had won the prize for the best essay, and had taken the first honor; and, if it could add to his merits, he was now senior captain in the Fifty-second Georgia infantry. Mrs. Barton busied herself, meanignment, relating to the plea, which was | while, to get her boy ready for the | boarding school; good well and spring water; morrow. With a sad foreboding she arranged his clothing, fondly lingering over each article as she folded it and packed it away. Fond mother! Little did she think that strangers' hands remanded for further proceedings, according Frank cantered along the hard, rocky and Telegraph were satisfied to go at a slower pace. "We'l, to-morrownight," thought he, "I must stop in Atlanta and see little Lil; and then away to the bloody fields of Virginia! I will leg, as Bradford writes me it is feared e will. Poor Ben! We were neigh bors, friends, and comrades. I feel deeply for him. What evils these wretches have brought upon us! As I ride along this beautiful country and see on every hand evidences of wealth and comfort, the desolate wasts of sale Northern Virginia rise before my mind's eye, and indicate to me what horrors may yet be perpetrated upon our fair land. Will the invader's foot ever desecrate my lovely, peaceful, quiet home? The track of Sherman is marked with fire; and ruin and des-Jackson is now in ashes. Ah me when will this bloody war cease? Shall we achieve our independence, or shall we be conquered?

Indulging in this train of thought. destination. "Where are you going, Captain?" was asked of him at this HEADACHE.—The symptoms of this moment. Ere he could recover his wandering thoughts, Phil Bradford grasped his hand, and shaking it warm.

"No longer Captain now, however, quit the barbarian life and surrender.
They marched to the city yesterday morning, with their muskets and accountements, stacked arms in front of counterments, stacked arms in front of small doses of Roback's Blood Pills frequently.

You evidently were dreaming or think. In the passing points for Trains are—Keimer and allow them to become constipated. Take small doses of Roback's Blood Pills frequently.

You evidently were dreaming or think. In the passing points for Trains are—Keimer and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are—Keimer Ponchatoula, Summit, Hazlehurst and Terry. The passing points for Trains are proportionally the p

he is dead. I am truly sorry for his LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, family. When are you going back to Virginia? I got your letter yesterday, Passed at the first session of the and start to-morrow. If you will meet me in Atlanta three days hence.

fore the train starts for Rome. whet the unselfish love of a mother er watch for his coming.

hother," cried Frank, as he "so mother, here we are, Telegraph, "Frank, you really must not go to- Frank, Johnnie and wife. I persuaded the morrow; and, mother, with my "Mother, I am morally certain that usual success I carried the day. And the thirtieth day of June, in each year, until one woman has twice as much curiosity now, madam, allow me to present the and including the year eighteen hundred he was answered by a sprightly boy of ers? Jack, arge Cook and Butler and land insurance company, either stock or mu tease his mother or Annie. ---(TO BE CONTINUES,)

-MAKE YOUR OWN STAP.

BUY ONE BOX OF THE Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co's

SAPONIFIER.

OR CONCENTRATED LYE.

J. MEAD & CO., 105 & 106 Chartres Street, New Orleans.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. J. D. MAYES,

SIONER OF MISSISSIPPI.

No. 12 Exchange Place, Bet. Charter & Royal,

RICHLAND

Male and Pemale Academy. THIS INSTITUTION, situated in Rankin from Byram Station, and twelve from Brandon, "Good by, Lady Barton. I'll see in an excellent neighborhood, thus being free from the deleterious influences of villages and towns on youths, and being a healthy location, together with a splendid Academic building,

It is supplied with competent and capable rate and female teachers. Music and the higher branches will be The great object will be thoroughness in mental training and practicability. The Fall Session will commence september 3d, 1866. Boarding can be procured at the Institution, or in the neighborhood For further particulars, address Principal, Situation Wanted.

aug28d&wIt The Best Cotton Tie Now in Use.

WE ARE AGENTS FOR BEARD &

Flour, Bacon, Corn Meal, &c., &. All at lowest We are also prepared to make tiberal adrances on cotton, consigned to us, or shipped through us to our friends, Messrs, John O. PERSONS & BALLEY!

TEN OR TWELVE GOOD MULES, suitable for wagons. Apply at the Livery Stable of

J. B. MASSIE & CO.

wanted.

For Rent Very Low, TPHE entire premises of Shady Grove Semiland; buildings and furniture suitable for a situated ten miles east of Philadelphia, Ne-shoba county.

Administrator's Notice. would perform the same service ere long for her loved boy. But I anticwere granted to the undersigned, at the July Term, A. D., 1866, of the Probate Court of Newton county, Mississippi: now all persons having claims against Decedent, are notified to road for some time. After a while, present them, duly probated, within the time however, as if by mutual consent, he haited by law, or they will be forever barred. F. E. THORNTON, Adm'rs.

Corn Meal! Corn Meal!!

ground at the Mississippi Penitentiary, will or payments for services to persons in the send the same in on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

G. L. DONALD, Sup't.

Jackson, Aug. 28, 1866. GATES, DEMERITT & CO., WHOLESALE DEALERS IN BOOTS. Shoes and Brogans, No. 105 Gravier near Magazine Street. NEW ORLEANS.

Aberdeen, Miss. CANTON HOTEL. Near the Depot, Canton Miss., by

MRS. C. T. REEVES.

A. J. GILLESPIE,

with comfortable and well furnished rooms, and a table which will be supplied with every delicacy that the market affords. July 19, 1866 dy

N. O. J. and G. N. RAILROAD. SCHEDULE FROM AUGUST 19TH. PASSENGER TRAINS-Leave New Or leans daily at 3:30 P. M.; arrive at Jackson at 2:20, A. M.; and reach Canton at 4 o'clock, TRAINS going South, leave Canton daily at 5:30, A. M.; Jackson, 7:30, A. M.; Brookhaven, 10:40, A. M.; Magnolia, 12:30, P. M.; arriving 10:40, A. M.; Magnolia, 12:30, at New Orleans at 6:30, P. M.

Thirty-ninth Congress. OFFICIAL.

[PUBLIC-No. 111.]

THE TAX LAW. An Acr to reduce internal taxation and to amend an act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the Government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June 30, 1864, and acts amendatory thereof.

[CONTINUED.]

INCOME. That section one hundred and sixteen be be amended by inserting after the words "on the excess over five thousand dollars," the following: "and a like tax shall be be levied, collected, and paid annually upon the gain. profits, and income of every business, trade, or profession carried on in the United States by persons residing without the United States, and citizens thereof.' That section one hundred and nineteen be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That the taxes on incomes herein imposed shall be levied on the first day of May, and be due and payable on or before and seventy, and no longer; and to any sum or sums annually due and unpaid after the thirtieth of June, as aforesaid, and for ten amount of duties unpaid, as a penalty, except from the estates of deceased or insol

That section one hundred and twenty be amended by striking out all after the enact ing clause and inserting in lieu thereof the please. But do let's have supper; I following: That there shall be levied and So saying, the handsome Frank am terribly hungry. Look at John's collected a tax of five per centum on all diwhistled to a greyhound lying on the countenance. Don't you see by his vidends in scrip or money thereafter de clared due, wherever and whenever the same long face that he is wofully hungry, shall be payable, to stockholders, policy "Come, Jowler, old fellow, do you too? Annie, I am sure, will agree holders, or depositors or parties whatsoever, want to go over to Calhoun, too?" with us in rejoicing over the arrival of including non-residents, whether citizens or Then, whistling three times in a shrill something warm and pleasing to the aliens, as part of the carnings, income, or tone, as a summons to his dark valet, taste. Where are our faithful retainmerry countenance and unmistakably all the tribe to put us out of our pain." tual, under whatever name or style known Rattling on thus, Major Barton or called, in the United States or Territories "Did you call, Mass Frank? I managed to keep up his sinking spirits, whether specially incorporated or existing under general laws, and on all undistributed now carrying on a conversation with sums, or sums made or added during the year "Yes; I want you to saddle Tele graph, and bring him round to the moments, and then dashing off to said banks, trust companies, savings instigued insurance companies shift now tutions, and insurance companies shall pay the said tax, and are hereby authorized to deduct and with the four all payments with the party. Senator Patterson and lady, Col. W. G. Moore, Col. Robert Morrow, Marshall made on account of any dividends or sums of money that may be due and payable a aforesaid the said tax of five per centum. And a list or return shall be made and rendered to the assessor or assistant assessor or or before the tenth day of the month following that in which any dividends or sums of money become due or payable as aforesaid; and said list or return shall contain a true and faithful account of the amount of taxes as aforesaid; and there shall be annexed thereto a declaration of the president, cashier, or treasurer of the bank, trust company savings institution, or insurance company under oath or affirmation in form and man It will make 18 peands of excellent hard Soan, or ner as may be prescribed by the Commis 25 gallons of the very best soft Soap for only about sioner of Internal Revenue, that the same 35 cents. Every housekeeper should have it for contains a true and faithful account of the ing taxes as aforesaid. And for any default in turn, with such declaration annexed, the bank, trust company, savings institution, or insurance company making such default, shall forfeit as a penalty the sum of one thou sand dollars; and in case of any default in making or rendering said list or return, or of any default in the payment of the tax as feet of lumber. required, or any part thereof, the assess and collection of the tax and penalty shall be in accordance with the general provisions A TTORNEY AT LAW, AND COMMIS- of law in other cases of neglect and refusal Provided. That the tax upon the dividends of life insurance companies shall not be deemed due until such dividends are payade; nor shall the portion of premiums re turned by mutual life insurance companies to their policy holders, nor the annual o semi-annual interest allowed or paid to the lepositors in savings banks or savings insti tutions, be considered as dividends. That section one hundred and twenty-two be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereothe following: That any railroad, canal turnpike, canal navigation, or slack-water company, indebted for any money for which onds or other evidence of indebtednes have been issued, payable in one or more years after date, upon which interest is stipulated to be paid, or coupons representing the interest, or any such company that may have declared any dividend in script of money due or payable to its stockholders ncluding non-residents, whether citizens or aliens, as part of the earnings, profits, inome, or gains of such company, and al profits of such company carried to the acount of any fund, or used for construction shall be subject to and pay a tax of five per centum on the amount of all such interest tee from soldiers who endorse and sympathise or coupons, dividends, or profits, whenever with the movement. and wherever the same shall be payable, and MUSIC TEACHER, by a young lady of to whatsoever party or person the same may be payable, including non-residents, whether citizens or aliens; and said companies are hereby authorized to deduct and withhold from all payments on account of any interest. or coupons, and dividends. due and payable as aforesaid, the tax of five per centum; and the payment of the amount of said tax so deducted from the interest, or coupons, or PATENT COTTON TIE, dividends, and certified by the president or excellence, which raised his character | decidedly the best now in use. We would call | treasurer of said company, shall discharge said company from that amount of the divi making their purchases. For sale, wholesale or retail.

dend, or interest, or coupon on the bonds or other evidences of their indebtedness so held by any person or party whatever, except where said companies may have contracted otherwise. And a list or return shall be made and rendered to the assessor or assist ants assessor, on or before the tenth day of the month following that in which said interest, coupons, or dividends become due and payable, and as often as every six months; and said list or return shall contain a true and faithful account of the amount of tax and there shall be annexed thereto a declaration of the president or treasurer of the company, under oath or affirmation in form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that the same contains a true and faithful account of said tax. And for any default in making or rendering such list or return, with the declaration annexed, or of the payment of the tax as aforesaid, the company making such default shall forfeit as a penalty the sum of one thousand dollars; and in case of any de- ners. The visiting delegations were in carfault in making or rendering said list or return, or of the payment of the tax or any For particulars, address Marg't Alderman, part thereof, as aforesaid, the assessment and care of Dr. Fulton, Meridian, Miss. aug30w4t | collection of the tax and penalty shall be made according to the provisions of law in other cases of neglect or refusal. That section one hundred and twenty-two be further amended by adding thereto the following proviso: Provided, That whenever any of the companies mentioned in this sec. tion shall be unable to pay the interest on their indebtedness, and shall in fact fail to pay such interest, that in such cases the tax levied by this section shall not be paid to the United States until said company resume the payment of interest on their indebted-

That section one hundred and twenty-three be amended by striking out all after the enrank as major, if Ben Cross loses his DERSONS DESIRING TO HAVE CORN collected, and paid on all salaries of officers, ivii, military, naval, or other employment or service of the United States, including sentors and representatives and delegates in Congress, when exceeding the rate of six hundred dollars, and a tax of ten per cent. on the excess over five thousand dollars; and it shall be the duty of all paymasters and all which has at all events the world of original which has at all events the world of original and the first state house. Fresh Meal will be kept on hand for it shall be the duty of all paymasters and all which has at all events the merit of originaldisbursing officers, under the government of the United States, or persons in the employ thereof, when making any payment to any officers or persons as aforesaid, or upon settling and adjusting the accounts of such officers or persons, to deduct and withhold the aforesaid tax, and they shall, at the same time, make a certificate stating the name of the officer or person from whom such deduction was made, and the amount thereof, which shall be transmitted to the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and entered as part of the internal tax; and the pay-roll, receipts, or account of officers or persons paying such tax, as aforesaid, shall be made to exhibit the fact of such payment. And it shall be the duty of the several Auditors of the Treasury Department, when auditing the accounts of any paymaster or disbursing officer, or any officer withholding his salary from moneys received by him, or when settling or adjusting the accounts of induces the general belief that the articles any such officer, to require evidence that the of the treaty of peace, signed at Prague, are taxes mentioned in this section have been deducted and paid over to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or other officer authorized to receive the same: Provided, That payments of prize money shall be regarded as income from salaries, and the tax thereon shall be adjusted and collected in like man-ner: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to payments made to mechanics or laborers employed upon public works. TO BE CONTINUED.

The Red Jacket Bitters impart vigor

the feeble without producing undue physical or mental excitement, and recuperate not only the relaxed and debilitated

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported for the Clarion.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

Latest from Europe by Cable.

The President on a Tour North.

The Journeymen Tailors of Philadelphia turn out en masse to receive him.

The Soldiers' Convention to be a Success.

A Train of Cars Destroyed by Petroleum.

Home and Foreign Markets. New Cotton at Savannah sold at Forty Cents.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 -Gold, 421: Fives, the Chilian privateer, Lavande, on the 1134: Seven-Thirties, 1064. Cotton steady -20,000 bales at 334 a 36c. Flour drooping; sales 280 bbls. Southern, $10@15. Wheat, 1@2c, lower. Corn lower. Oats dull. Pork ham last night before a mass meeting has firm; 4300 bbls, mess $30 75@31. Lard firm, able to the Reform movement, which are 18@21c. Rice quiet. Sugar steady; 1000 ded all his former chaquent charts man hlids. Muscovada, 91@111c. Coffee firm.

Turpentine dull, 65@66c. Rosin dull. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 -It is understood that the Presidential party, leaving to morrow for Chicago, will embrace some twentyfive persons. Secretary Seward, and several members of his family, Secretary Wells and lady, and Post Master General Raudall will go. The other members of the Cabinet find it impracticable to leave. Gen. Grant and his chief of staff, Rawlings, Admiral Far-Gooding, Mr. L. A. Gabright of the Associated Press, and Mr. W. W Worden will acompany the President.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27.—At a meeting at the Merchants' Exchange, a committee was appointed to receive and welcome the Presi-

At Corn Exchange a resolution, was offered to co-operate with the merchants in receiving the President, but was defeated, receiving only four votes, while the negative was The Journeymen Tailors' Society of the city have resolved to turn out en masse to NEW YORK, Aug. 27 .- A train with petro- | CANDLES-Star eum, on the Eric Railroad, collided with CHEESE-Western another train near Narrowsburg, N. J. The COFFEE petroleum caught fire and burned the whole | CORN train, several dwellings and fifty thousand

Mr. Williams, while endeavoring to rescue his children, was fatally burned. His wife FLOURjumped from the second story window and immediately gave birth to a child. Loss, SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26. - The British ship Twilight, from Hong Kong, for San ONIONS Francisco, has been wrecked near the Island PORKof Fanctor; 143 Chinese passengers and one European drowned. The flag ship Hartford had arrived at Hong Kong from America, and reported that | SUGAR-Common the Imperialists had beaten 6500 rebels, causng them to retreat. Washington, Aug. 27. - There are the trongest indications that the Convention of soldiers and sailors, who endorse the President, to be held at Cleveland, September 17th, will prove to be a grand success. Many prominent officers in all the States of the North will participate. No less than seven generals from New York, in addition to those who originally signed the call, have requested their names to be affixed to it. Hundreds of letters are received daily by the Commit-

Washington, Aug. 27-By Cable from St. Petersburg, 26th.—The United States Naval | BUTTER-Choice yell officers met with distinguished honors on the | CANDLES-Star route to Moscow. The Russian Government has refused an | CHEESE-New edict of martial law in the Southern Provinces of the Empire. LIVERPOOL, August 27th, noon.-Cotton | COFFEE-Rio aarket steady. Sales to-day estimated at COTTON Slow ten thousand bales. Middling Uplands 135. Breadstuffs dull, and declining. Provisions mchanged. LONDON, Aug. 27th. noon.—Consols 884.—

The market for American securities is firmer. LEIPSIG, Aug. 27.-A large and influential LARD meeting was held here to-day, and resolu- LIME tions adopted declaring in favor of a union NAILS OIL-Lard of the Kingdom of Saxony with Russia. Baltimore, Aug. 27.—The Schultzer Festival to-day was attended by an immense PEPPER gathering. The shooting parties, and all the PORK-Mes usual festivities peculiar to German Societies, are in progress. The procession was a ROPEvery fine affair, including mounted riflemen, music, and an immense car containing fe. males and young children personating the Goddess of Liberty and the United States, with the arms of each State, on their ban-

BY THE CABLE TO ASSOCIATED PRESS. QUEENSTON, Monday evening .- The steamship Terrific from New York arrived this evening and proceeded on her voyage to

LONDONDERRY, Monday evening.-The steamship Moravia, from Quebec, August 18 arrived here this afternoon, and sailed again

BIRMINGHAM, Aug. 27.—The Reform display in this city to-day was brief, and passed off without riot or disturbance of any kind, JACKSON, MISSISSIPP which had been to some extent apprehended. OFFERS for sale a fine assortment of Toys 18 h acting clause and inserting in lieu thereof Many thousands of people were present. - great variety of fancy goods the following: That there shall be levied, The resolution adopted by the immense assembly is in favor of residential individual HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE suurage. John Bright delivered an address this evening in support of the platform. Paris, Aug. 27.—The Paris Temps attributes, on authority of private information and, good kitchen, out houses, garden, lot ity. After announcing his intentions to the Catholic world in a solemn ensyclical, His Holiness is to address a letter to Napoleon proposing to deliver over to him, as Grand Vicar of the States of the Church comprising the provinces, which Italians annexed pursuant to royal decree, and which annexa tion the French Government originally dis-

The motives of the Holy Father, for taking such steps, are the dangers which threaten the temporal power of the Church. [We are unable to descipher the balance of this dispatch, and therefore omit it.)

BERLIN, Monday Evening, August 27. Information has been received here, which almost identical with the original preliminaries. The details of the treaty will not be made public until ratified by parties involved.

LIVERPOOL, Monday Evening, Aug. 27. The cotton market closes steady. Sales to- other a ladies' watch with a gold chain-

Central shares, 781. SAVANNAH, GA., Aug. 27.-Four bales ton, new crop, clased middling fair day at 46 cents.

vanced. The closing quotation

5-20's, 72; Eric Railroad shares, 45a

NIGHT REPORTS

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

Cholera Decreasing

LATEST FROM EUROPE (BY THE CABLE)

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 28.-Cotton sale 750 bales low middling 33/2/34c P. for four days, 860 bales against 960; expe 4555 bales.

Gold, 451. Bank Sterling, 54957 X York Exchange 8 discount to par. Only fourteen deaths from cholers . terday. NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(By Cable to Asso. ated Press.)-PRAUGE, MONDAY, Ang. or

The treaty of peace made by the pleuman tiaries of Austria and Prussia has been a fied by the King of Prussia, and is how, route to this city for exchange MADRID, Aug. 28 - One of her Cather Majesty's frigates has succeeded in caption of Spain. LONDON, Tuesday noon, Aug 28-10 Birmingham delivered a speech in Birm much enthusiastic excitement anangen

The meeting was the greatest thing of years. The interest manifested to was landatory of the Government of

Czar and of the system adopted by his which had bound the subjects so closely LIVERPOOL, Tuesday Noon, August The cotton market is dull and decline Sales to-day estimated at 8,000 bales w dling Uplands quoted at 134d

LONDON, Noon, Aug. 2d - Consuls quoted at 874; U. S. 5-20's 72; Illimoter, tral, 78; Erie, 454.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET. SATURDAY, Anonst BACON-Shoulders. P

Rib sides Clear do. Hams sug c. ? BAGGING-Rolls COTTON-Ordinary Middling.

LARD POTATOES-

Prime White TURKEYS

ST. LOUIS MARKET. Ribsides Plain ham BEANS White Ch. navy BREAD-Pilot

Soda CORN-White CORN MEAL

FLOUR Superfine .. P bbl. $5 10 @ bbl. 87 50 @ Double ex. 2 sek. $ 9 75 OATS

Castile SUGAR-Crushed TWINE-Cotton WHISKEY.

> S. WEYER, State Street, Cheapside

Knives, Fish Hooks, Crockery, Tin ware and

IN PAULDING, MISSISSIPPI THE undersigned offers for sale his dwel The latter is now used for a Drug Store, and jy28dtf.

OFFICE-Professional Row, No. 4. Commercial Hotel,

WHEELER & BRYSON, Proprietors

Three Gold Watches Stolen 111 'HE above reward will be given for the a I prehension or information that will lead in the apprehension of the thief, that entered my house on the night of the 22d inst., and stole day, 10,000 bales. Middling Uplands, 134d. The breadstuffs market flat, and prices quite nominal, with downward tendency. Provision market quiet.

London, Aug. 27.—The London money market is very easy, and an advance of 1 the market for American securities connues firm.

The Erie and Illinois above 1 the chain gold watch the ladies' watch with a gold chain—the gentlemans' watch a plain gold watch, the ladies' of rather an uncommon construction. The common point of rather an uncommon construction and to wind up; the chain has the appearance of gold beads fastened together. Also, my pocket book, with about twenty dollars in greenbacks.

Also, the same night the house of Col. J. E. Watts was entered and a plain gold watch stolen, and seventy-four dollars in greenbacks, and divers other articles of clothing, &c., &c., taken.

The Eric and Illinois shares have ad Garlandsville, Aug. 23, 1864. aug26d

100

Butter crackers

Strickly) low middling at:

SALT-Domestic SODA—In kegs

NOTICE.

THe undersigned having established a Hoteller to wish meals at all hours for the passengers a may arrive on the respectine trains. He will alway endeavor to furnish the best, the market affords a The Public's Obt Servt. mb27dtjau is a good stand to sell medicines. It is also we suited for a dry goods store, and a good stan

> S. E. CASTEEL J. W. COVINGTON.

two Gold Watches, one a gentlemans' and the portance-a small i for that business. If desired, he will sell the drugs and furniture on hands for less that

TTORNEY AT LAW, Raymond, Mo-

MEMPHIS, TENN., Corner Front and Je ferson streets, $150 Reward.